His Insistence on Equality in College Life Never Has Been Forgiven by the Social Set.

Princeton. N. J., January 21.—Enemies of Governor Wilson among the alumn' of Princeton are apparently becoming active in opposing him in his presidential ambition. The felcing has been smodering ever since the end of the famous controversy over the plans for the Princeton Graduate College.

It is recalled that Adrian H. Joline, who made public Woodrow Wilson's letter expressing the wish that William J. Bryan might be "knocked into a cocked hat," was one of Dr. William J. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg. Va., January 21.—The man with a reputation for smilling and pitching curveless balls without having opened his mouth on a diamond in fifteen years, may become a compromise candidate for the presidency of the Virginia League, and the fans of the State need not be surprised if he is settled on at the meeting to be held here at the instance of the National Association next Friday.

It is learned that forces have been at work under cover for several weeks to bring this condition about, and it is believed Orth would take the job. Is he was chosen by a majority of the clubs composing the circuit.

There is no doubt if he consents to allow his name to be placed in nemi-
